

10-DAY RWANDA DISCOVERY EXPERIENCE

Kigali City - Akagera National Park - Nyungwe Forest - Mountain Gorillas - Community

OVERVIEW:

Murakaza neza! Welcome to Rwanda, a magical landscape of a thousand hills and a million smiling faces. With 26,388Km² of size, 14 million people of which 70% are below 35 years of age, this small young and yet ambitious country would give you a shock of life. Etched into global consciousness by the brutality of the 1994 genocide, the social and economic repair that has occurred since is nothing short of miraculous, the country is stable, with a track record as the fastest growing in Africa and tourism once again a key contributor to the economy. Primate safaris may be the primary drawcard for the country but it's not all monkey business; go beyond the gorillas, step into an adventure playground waiting to be discovered by the active traveler and experience a country breathtaking in its beauty and graced by a people generous in their welcome.
